1. Introduction and Purpose

Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Parramatta act as a ministry of the Church whose purpose is to provide conditions whereby students can flourish, striving to reach their potential. Catholic Schools Parramatta Diocese (CSPD) is committed to developing learning communities that are safe, respectful and just. Students and staff will protect and promote the dignity of all people recognising that each is created “in the image and likeness of God” (Genesis 1:28).

Safe, inclusive learning environments that teach and support positive behaviour are paramount to developing a respectful community of learners. The community includes students, staff and parents/caregivers working in partnership for the wellbeing of all.

The focus of this policy is to define the behaviour expectations of students and to assert everyone’s right to a safe, inclusive, respectful learning and working environment.

Learning to regulate one's emotions and behaviour is integral to child and adolescent development. When students are a part of a community where appropriate behaviours are taught and encouraged the benefits contribute to a sense of individual and collective wellbeing.

Effective teaching supports good behaviour and the connection between quality, explicit teaching and orderly learning environments is well researched and documented¹. The Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) provides a framework of supporting student learning through a structured and data-driven approach to knowing students and what they need to be safe and to flourish in their learning.

This policy requires schools to develop their own guidelines and procedures for teaching and supporting positive behaviour.

A thriving learning community is underpinned by:

- a caring and supportive school culture promoting positive relationships that are based on Gospel teachings;
- safety as a priority for all;
- positive partnerships between all members of the community, built on the principle core values of respect, justice, equity, and compassion, and;

- an approach to problem solving that is restorative.

This document guides the work of school leaders and staff in the application of the Student Wellbeing Policy and Student Wellbeing Framework.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all students, parents/carers and staff in all CSPD schools and sites and at all CSPD functions and events.

3. Definitions

CSPD means the Catholic Schools Parramatta Diocese and includes CSPD Support Teams (office-based staff) and Schools.

Behaviour refers to the actions students take as they engage in their learning and time at school and in relationship with members of their school community. Behaviour is contextual and functional and can be explicitly taught.

Multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS) refers to a framework for learning comprising four essential components: screening, progress monitoring, multi-level prevention and intervention system, and data-based decision making.

Positive Behaviour for Learning refers to an evidence-based framework that brings together the whole-school community to contribute to developing a positive, safe and supportive learning culture. The framework assists schools to improve social, emotional, behavioural and academic outcomes for children and young people.

Risk Management refers to the processes for identifying and managing risks presented by people (especially students) or circumstances in the environment.

4. Principles

This policy is guided by the following principles:

- 4.1 The safety and wellbeing of all students, staff and visitors. CSPD schools provide a secure and welcoming environment where every child feels valued, respected, and safe to express themselves. As such, all members of the community will act safely and renounce violence in all forms.
- 4.2 Maximising time for learning. The learning growth of every student is central to the work of Catholic schools. By encouraging a safe, orderly and inclusive environment, learning time for all students is maximised. Good behaviour supports good learning and good teaching supports good behaviour. Good behaviour will reduce teacher workload and improve teacher wellbeing, allowing for more focus on student learning.
- 4.3 Catholic moral and social teachings. By emphasising values such as honesty, humility, compassion, forgiveness and love, students are encouraged to reflect on and be influenced by the teachings of Jesus Christ in their daily interactions and decision-making. This will support them to act in ways that respect the dignity of others and build healthy relationships. In correcting behaviour, the dignity of the student must always be preserved and protected.
- 4.4 Students belong to and are impacted by systems. Students' behaviour is shaped by the systems (internal and external) in which they live. This context may include impacts of a disability or mental health condition, the functions of their family, ethnic and cultural identity, experiences of trauma, intellectual and emotional developmental challenges. Teachers are required to "know their students and how they learn" when considering how best to manage and respond to students' behaviour².
- 4.5 The shared understanding of expected behaviours including:
- 4.5.1 All members of the community will act safely and schools will respond firmly to unsafe behaviours.
- 4.5.2 All students will behave safely and respectfully and follow the school's behaviour expectations, routines and procedures.

- 4.5.3 Positive behaviour is to be taught in a structured and consistent way.
 - 4.5.4 Behaviour is best managed in the context of a trusting relationship between staff and students characterised by unconditional positive regard for all students all the time.
 - 4.5.5 Schools will be consistent and proportional in their application of consequences for unacceptable behaviour.
 - 4.5.6 All students are learning how to behave and there is always hope for their positive development.
 - 4.5.7 Behaviour performs a function and an analysis of the function of problematic behaviour is necessary for supporting students to follow the behaviour expectations, routines and procedures established in their school.
 - 4.5.8 Behaviour occurs in a context that is more complex than just the moment of the behaviour. There are environmental, predisposing, cognitive and other factors which influence students' behaviour.
 - 4.5.9 All members of the community will reject all forms of violence.
- 4.6 Procedural Fairness - decisions about consequences for unacceptable behaviour must be framed by the principles of procedural fairness including the right to be heard, the right to respond and the proportionality of the consequence. In more serious cases, this will be guided by the Suspension, Transfer and Exclusion Procedures.
- 4.7 Corporal punishment is prohibited. All CSPD staff are prohibited from engaging in corporal punishment in any form. CSPD staff must not encourage any other person to engage in corporal punishment.
- 4.8 Partnership with parents. Recognising the pivotal role of parents as the primary educators, we encourage active involvement and collaboration between the school and parents. We aim to keep parents informed and engaged in their child's educational journey, seeking their support in reinforcing the values and expectations of our school communities. This relationship is described in the Family School Partnership Principles.
